With heavy hearts, we want to share an update that has been incredibly difficult for our family to put into words.

Recent funding for DNA testing, has led to confirming that remains discovered near Maple Falls, Wa. in November of 1978 belong to Marla Jean Thomas. While this news brings a sense of long-awaited closure, it also deepens our grief as we say goodbye in a new way.

We want to express our deepest gratitude to everyone who has stood beside us throughout this journey — to the community members who shared posts, prayed, and kept Marla's memory alive. Your support has meant more than words can express.

At this time, we are asking for privacy as we process this news.

Thank you, from the bottom of our hearts,
—The Family of Marla Jean Thomas
